Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: IMPOSED LOW SULPHUR FUEL SURCHARGE (LSS) FOR ALL IN/EXPORT SHIPMENTS TO EUROPE

The International Maritime Organisation (IMO) sets global sulphur limits for marine fuels as per the International Convention MARPOL Annex VI Regularions for the Prevention of Air Pollution from Ships.

Our Principals have decided to impose Low Sulphur Fuel Surcharge (LSS) to/from Far East to Europe with effect from 1st January 2015 as follow :

Far East to/from North West Europe Continent and United Kingdom direct ports
@ USD20/teu

Far East to/from Baltic Sea (include Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Poland, Latvia, Lithuania, Russian) @ USD50/teu

Far East to/from Pain non-direct ports and Portugal @ USD50/teu

Far East to/fom Ireland and UK non-direct ports @ USD50/teu

We thank you for your kind attention and understanding for the imposed.

Best Regards
Fairmacs Multiline Singapore Pte Ltd.
